

ENROLL IN

COMMS 321: FIELD RHETORIC

THIS FALL AND TRAVEL DURING FALL BREAK TO

PUERTO RICO

Field rhetoric is a research method that closely examines meaning in the moment and place it is being made. This course takes you out of the classroom to study the meaning-making process in everyday life.

INCLUDED:

- Roundtrip airfare Chicago to PR
- 4 nights' accommodation
- Site visits and activities
- Transportation to and from sites
- Welcome dinner
- Travel insurance
- Shuttle to and from San Juan airport

NOT INCLUDED:

- Most meals
- Travel to and from Chicago airport
- Personal purchases

The course: 16-weeks online Fall 2025

Travel dates: October 3-7

Program Fee: $1,200

Prerequisites: ENG 110 and COMMS 100

Spots available: 12

Apply by April 4 - scholarships available

Activities on the island:

- Stroll through Old San Juan
- Explore two fortresses
- Trek through caves and on cliffs
- Visit a 360 foot statue
- Hike to waterfalls
- Meander through a rain forest
- Slide down natural water slides
- Play on the beach
- Observe ancient petroglyphs

Questions: Dr. Brian Heslop, bheslop@edgewood.edu

