

Edgewood College Masaryk University Exchange Program: Psychology & Neuroscience Research Program

Study abroad and engage in research in the heart of Europe!

Program Information

- Semester-length program at Edgewood's partner, Masaryk University, in the Czech Republic
- Open to undergraduate Psychology and Neuroscience majors
- Students need to have completed a research methods course prior to the semester abroad.
- 3.0 GPA required

Cost

- Students pay Edgewood College tuition, room and board, and a $150 Edgewood exchange fee.
- Ability to use all Edgewood College and Federal Aid grants, loans and scholarships.
- Edgewood College Study Abroad Scholarships available for this program!

How to Apply

- Schedule an advising session with Sara Liang in the Center for Global Education and with Ferrinne Spector in the Psychology/Neuroscience Programs.
- Create account on the Center for Global Education's study abroad portal AbroadOffice.
- Apply for Edgewood College Masaryk University Exchange Program.
- Participate in an interview.
- Apply for Edgewood College study abroad scholarship.

Application & Scholarship Deadlines

Fall 2022 Semester Program:

January 21, 2022

Spring 2023 Semester Program:

Late April 2022

